

SPOLETO FOOTBALL CUP

2-5 June 2011

Spoleto lies on the beautiful hills of Umbria, is one of the oldest cities of the same, has more than 2500 years of history.

Its founders were the Huns, but good luck for the city came only with the Roman Empire.

It became a colony of the empire in 241 b.c. , known as the Spoletum.

Walking through the old town you can immerse yourself in the atmosphere of the Roman Empire visiting the Roman Theatre, the Arch of Druso and Germanico or visiting the house Romana attributed to the mother of Emperor Vespasiano.

In 1947 was founded the Experimental Lirycal Theatre, in 1951 was founded the Italian Centre for Studies on the Middle Ages, in 1958 Maestro Giancarlo Menotti staged the first edition of "Festival of Two Worlds".

Here takes place the Spoleto Football Cup, tournament authorized by FEDERAZIONE ITALIANA GIUOCO CALCIO (FIGC)

The event is not only the sole purpose of achieving sporting results, but allows players and accompanying persons to enjoy a city rich in history and art, in a region that represents a source of pride for Italy in the world.

At the same time do not forget some of the fun, allowing players to plunge in the largest amusement natural park in Italy.
